Congress Approves Neutral Bill, Quits

ROOSEVELT TO SIGN MEASURE AT NOON TODAY

Legislation Product Of Long Fight Over Effects Of War

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The special session of the 76th Congress adjourned at 5:35 o'clock (CST) tonight after finally approving the Roosevelt administration bill to repeal the arms embargo and substitute a system of "cash and carry" sales to the belligerent governments of Europe.

The legislation, product of six weeks' fighting as to the best way to keep America free of war, went to President Roosevelt for his signature, scheduled to be affixed at noon tomorrow. Ceremonies will accompany the signing of the measure, with members of House and Senate who were prominent in the long fight attending.

THE ILLINOIS VOTE

Washington, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Rep. N. M. Mason, of Oglethorpe, joined the other Illinois Republicans in opposing the administration neutrality bill on the final roll call today and voted against adoption of the conference report. Earlier this week Mason had voted with supporters of the arms embargo repeal.

Rep. Frank W. Price, of Carlinville, again was the only Illinois Democrat voting against the bill.

The Illinois Democratic senators, Scott W. Lucas and James M. Slattery, voted to adopt the conference report and repeal the arms embargo.

The house roll call for the Illinois delegation:

Against—Fries, Democrat; Allen, Arenas, Church, Dirksen, Johnson, Mason, Reed, Sumner and Wheat. Republicans. Chipfield (R) was paired against the report.

On the vote for sine die adjournment, Lucas was recorded with the Democratic majority and Slattery was announced as favoring termination of the special session also.

From the White House, meanwhile, came word that soon after approving the bill, the chief executive would issue proclamations making it effective as applied to war in Europe.

Final congressional action came with the approval of both branches of a conference report agreed to earlier in the day by representatives of House and Senate, making one bill of the separate measures passed earlier by each. The Senate approved it 55 to 34 and the House vote was 243 to 172.

Republican Effort

Despite a Republican effort to keep Congress in session, the adjournment thereafter was comparatively uneventful. Debate on motions to adjourn is forbidden by the rules of both houses, so nothing could be said. The Senate voted to end the session, 46 to 25, and the House 223 to 189.

Thereafter, the membership quickly filed out and there were few present in the House to hear the reading of a message from the president expressing the hope that "world events will not make it necessary to have any other extraordinary sessions" and extending his best wishes for a "pleasant Thanksgiving and a Merry Christmas."

BOOKIE SERVICE TO FIGHT DEATH BLOW IN COURT

Vast Wire Network Is Threatened By Prosecutors

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The nationwide Horse Race Information service, confronted by prospects of complete collapse of its vast wire network, planned a court fight tonight in an effort to continue operations.

Weymouth Kirkland, attorney for the continent-spanning race empire dominated by M. L. Annenberg, reported he would seek an injunction against interference with the service on the grounds that it was a public utility.

He announced he would apply for the injunction some time before noon next Monday—the hour set by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company for terminating the rental of its facilities to the Annenberg agencies.

The Western Union Telegraph company joined the American Telephone and Telegraph company in deciding to take similar action next Thursday.

Jon Neal Campbell of the Chicago law firm representing the Western Union told reporters executives of the firm in New York would send formal notice of the decision next Monday to U. S. District Attorney William J. Campbell and State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney of Cook county (Chicago). The prosecutors had demanded that the three big communications companies sever their relations with the Nationwide News, Inc., Illinois Nationwide News, Inc. and other related concerns which transmit entry lists, odds, race accounts, results and payoff figures from the tracks to bookmakers establishments.

Meanwhile, the bookies studied means of obtaining race information in lieu of the wire service. One alternative was to accept wagers one day and pay off the next after accounts of the races had been published. The other was to rig up some kind of radio service. But Courtney declared "any radio corporation which allies itself with any operations of a gambling or bookmaking syndicate will meet the joint opposition" of federal and state prosecutors.

Soy Beans Climb To New High For Seasonal Trading

Prices Hit Dollar Mark For First Time Since March of 1938

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Soy beans climbed into new high seasonal ground for the second consecutive session today, prices hitting the $1 mark for the first time since March, 1938.

At their peak for the session December delivery of beans was quoted at 99 and May at 1.00, a bushel, up more than six cents and about 28 cents higher than the price a year ago. The close was 4 to 4 1/4 above yesterday's finish, December 97 1/2, May 99. In the spot market No. 2 yellow beans sold at 98 cents, about 20 cents above the price a year ago.

Soy beans have advanced about 8 cents a bushel on the board of trade this week, aided by strong commercial demand. Export sales are estimated as high as 11,000,000 bushels so far this season and stimulated by war conditions which have made it difficult for European countries to obtain Manchurian beans, has featured the trade.

Shipments by lake from Chicago to American ports this week included 1,322,000 bushels of soy beans, and to Canadian ports 535,000 bushels. Lake shipments today included 229,000 bushels to Oswego.

Harvesting of the country's biggest crop—estimated at nearly 83,000,000 bushels—meanwhile neared completion.

State Commission Will Probe Boxing

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Chairman Joseph Triner of the state athletic commission said today the commission would begin at once to investigate charges by Harry Thomas, Minnesota heavyweight boxer, that his fight with Max Schmeling and Tony Galento was "fixed."

Triner and the two other commission members, Sheldon Clark of Chicago and James R. Fitzpatrick of Springfield, were told earlier by Gov. Horner to institute an investigation of the alleged fight frauds and if they find warrant for it, to hold a hearing "with all the principals involved invited to present their cases."

Joe Jacobs, New York manager of Schmeling and Galento, and Nate Lewis of Chicago, Thomas' manager at the time of the fight in question, both have denied the Minnesota fighter's charges.

The commission has announced that the three heavyweights and Jacobs and Lewis would be barred from participation in Illinois fights until "every vestige of suspicion is cleared away."

EXPERIENCE

Ashland, Va., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Robert Jeter, of Hanover county, now can put his heart in his work.

Appointed a special officer to combat chicken thefts, Jeter ended his first night of duty to find that thieves had stolen 94 chickens and turkeys from his own henhouse.

U. S. Crew In Charge Of Vessel

Oslo, Norway, Nov. 4.—(Saturday)—The wanderings of the American Freighter City of Flint under a German prize crew ended early today when Norwegian officials interned the ship to her American crew.

The Norwegian Admiralty announced the ship, en route from Murmansk, Russia, to Hamburg, Germany, anchored at the Norwegian port without "valid reason" and that it was decided to intern the German crew and that the vessel should be "given free."

This meant, one usually well-informed Norwegian source said, that the City of Flint, a prisoner of the Germans and an object of diplomatic action since she was seized by the German pocket battleship Deutschland on Oct. 9, was free to sail away wherever she wished.

This source added that the freighter may already have sailed away—once more in charge of her American crew.

Contraband Cargo

The freighter, first carried to Murmansk by the Nazi prize crew after her capture in the Atlantic with what the Germans said was a contraband cargo, reached Haugesund at 5 p. m. (10 a. m. C.S.T.) yesterday.

There were reports that the ship put into the Norwegian harbor to land an American seaman who was ill but as the hours wore on there was no indication that the seaman would be put ashore.

Then came the admiralty's statement which said:

"The American City of Flint with a German prize crew, was allowed to use Norwegian territorial waters from Rosnes southward. The ship accompanied by a Norwegian warship Olav Trygvasson and one torpedo boat, arrived at Haugesund Friday evening and anchored off Haugesund without permission.

"As there was no valid reason for calling at the Norwegian port authorities decided the ship should be given free and the German prize crew interned."

All Competition In High Schools To Be Under One Control

H. S. Principals Establish Association For All Contest Activity

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Illinois High School principals today voted to establish an Illinois High School Association which would supervise all interscholastic contests.

The new organization, assimilating the former Illinois High School Athletic Association, would control competitions in music, speaking, scholarship, and vocational training, as well as sports.

The change was approved today by the 35th annual high school conference at the University of Illinois, climaxing several years of discussion.

Present officers of the athletic association would take charge of the new organization.

Edson Smith, principal of the Anna-Jonesboro township high school, was elected president at today's meeting of the principals' association. He succeeded Principal C. W. Allison of Champaign high school.

Resolutions adopted by the Association today urged that the state consider a method of accrediting specialized trade schools; that youth unemployment in the state be studied; and that entrance blanks of Illinois Colleges be made uniform.

State Commission Will Probe Boxing

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Chairman Joseph Triner of the state athletic commission said today the commission would begin at once to investigate charges by Harry Thomas, Minnesota heavyweight boxer, that his fight with Max Schmeling and Tony Galento was "fixed."

CHURCHILL AND FRENCH NAVAL OFFICERS TALK

Meeting In France Is Surprise; Western Front "Active"

Paris, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Winston Churchill, British First Lord of the Admiralty, held a series of surprise conferences with high French naval officials today regarding the war at sea while reports from the western front told of increased activity by German land troops.

The British naval chieftain talked for two hours with Premier Daladier, conferred twice with Cesar Campinchi, French naval minister, and lunch with Rear Admiral Jean Darian, supreme commander of French naval forces.

After talking with the British official Daladier called a conference of his economic advisers.

Churchill arrived yesterday but his presence was not disclosed until today.

German Activity

Military dispatches meanwhile told of a sudden burst of German troop activity south of Zweibrücken, accompanied by a series of protective barrages.

The Nazi big guns opened up with heavy fire on French front lines in this shift of operations to a point about 18 miles east of Saarbrücken. Territory in the rear of the French lines, long vacated by the civilian population, also was bombarded.

Tonight's official communiqué reported a "quiet day on the whole front. Locally there has been few encounters between German troops."

The morning communiqué said the night had been quiet with "some artillery and infantry fire."

On the home front the cabinet devoted the most of a two-hour session to a review of the military and diplomatic situation by Premier Daladier and also discussed the prospects of buying equipment, particularly airplanes, in the United States.

MAKE DECISION TO BUILD FENCE AT ST. CHARLES

Both Bowen, Harmon Overruled By The Legislators

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—A decision to build a wire fence around buildings at the St. Charles School for Boys in an effort to check escapes was reached today in a meeting of the Gunning legislative commission.

Director A. L. Bowen of the State Welfare Department, who attended the meeting, agreed to its erection after an informal poll of the commission showed seven of its ten members favored the step. The action followed the escape Wednesday night of 13 inmates of the correctional institution. Eight of the youths have been captured.

Bowen, who long had opposed building the fence, offered a counter proposal at the meeting today. He suggested erection of a temporary barbed wire structure to house incorrigible youths, but his plan was not put to a final vote.

Senator Wilbur H. Hickman (D-Paris) brought copies of a bill passed in June by the legislators, appropriating $40,000 for St. Charles safeguards, to the meeting, called into special session by Senator Thomas P. Gunning (R-Princeton).

Legislative Command

Hickman said the bill set aside $26,000 for a fence, $9,000 for lighting the institution grounds and the remainder for guards and motorcycles. He contended "this was a command by the legislature and should be carried out."

Bowen said, "It wasn't built because the legislature appropriated $250,000 for a permanent security building to house these incorrigibles that are causing us all the trouble."

Senators Gunning, Hickman, Peter P. Kleiminski (D-Chicago), Arnold P. Benson (R-Batavia) and Representatives John C. Frick (R-Elgin), Thomas P. Bolger (D-McHenry), Leon M. Schuler (D-Aurora) all said they favored the fence. The only members opposing was Rep. Maud N. Peppers (R-Aurora). Two members were absent.

"All right, we'll build the fence," Bowen remarked when each legislator had expressed his views.

"But you fellows will have to be prepared to take plenty of criticism from the women's clubs all over the state," Bowen added.

William T. Harmon, superintendent at St. Charles, also opposed the fence, declaring it would not prevent escapes.

Harmon also said 76 escapes so far this year represented a steady reduction from the peak of 275 in 1932 and declared "the fence won't be needed if we can segregate the trouble makers."

Judge Halts Parade Of GMC Witnesses

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley today halted a parade of General Motors Corporation dealer-witnesses in the government's anti-trust trial of General Motors, three subsidiaries and 17 officials.

Nearly 100 dealers, none of them permitted to testify concerning relations with General Motors, had been called to the stand by the defense when Judge Lindley refused to allow additional witnesses in the same category.

Answers of the dealers had been read into the record for any appeal. Present GM dealers are permitted to testify to the jury only in attempts to refute previous testimony of government witnesses.

Denial that Jack McGarry of Fort Worth, Tex., a government witness, lost his GM franchise because he failed to use General Motors Acceptance Corporation in financing time sales was made by Allen Wright of Chicago, regional manager for Pontiac; B. Strayhorn, Dallas, Tex., Buick zone manager, and H. C. Gillespie of Memphis, Tenn., Buick regional manager.

THINGS HAPPEN WHEN SHERIFF HAS WRECK

Silsbee, Tex., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Sheriff Miles Jordan's big sedan went off the highway today—and things happened.

The car sheered off a telephone pole, uprooted an oak tree and wound up in a creek. Jordan got clear just before it burst into flames. His guns, lying in the car, went off with reverberating bangs.

Telephone and light service at Silsbee went out as the pole fell.

Jordan suffered cuts and bruises.

FRANK MILLER

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Frank Miller, assistant secretary of the Springfield, Ill., Chamber of Commerce, today was selected as manager of the Laporte Chamber of Commerce. He succeeded Glen B. Maple, who recently resigned.

A LITTLE SLIP

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Louis Gordon, employee of the city automobile testing station where all motorists are compelled to have their cars inspected twice yearly, was fined $1 today for failure to have his car tested.

INDIANAN WINS HUSKING TITLE; VAUGHN THIRD

Illinois Farmer Is In The Money; Record Not Endangered

Lawrenceville, Kas., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Lawrence Pitzer, lanky Indiana farmer with 160 acres of corn back home waiting his attention, is the new king of the cornhuskers.

He out-shucked the pick of 11 states in the national contest today, finishing with a net total of 28.39 bushels of corn for the 80-minute session.

"Always felt I was entitled to one of these contests," grinned Pitzer, known to his friends as "Slim."

It was his fifth try at the title.

Record Unmarred

The new national champion, although he hung up a new record in winning his state contest last week, was considerably under the national record of 41.5 bushels established by Elmer Carlson, Iowa, in 1935.

Pitzer, 6 feet 2 and weighing 175 pounds, is 40, married and has one son, 17. He farms about 300 acres in Fountain county, Ind.

About that 160 acres of corn still in the field back home:

"Sh, I'll use a mechanical picker on most of that," he drawled.

With his victory Pitzer won $100 in cash and a trophy. Huth won $50.

Third place and $25 went to Eous Vaughn, Illinois state champion who finished with the greatest net load but who lost out because of excess husks clinging to the husked ears. His home is at Monticello.

Ted Koger, Elmer, Mo., state champion, was fourth and Otto Sorenson, (Continued on Page Two)

Unified State Relief Set-Up, Official Plea

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Neil H. Jacoby, chairman of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission, in a statement today urged a "unified system of public assistance" in our state to insure that the money we now have is spent more effectively.

Jacoby urged that the coordination be undertaken before either of two alternative steps are taken to meet increased relief demands. The chairman said "If more sales tax collections are allocated to relief, it will be necessary to do one of two things.

"Either we must curtail some other essential welfare service or some educational activity, or else we must have a four or five per cent sales tax."

Jacoby questioned whether "the citizens of Illinois want to take either of these steps. The present sales tax is three per cent.

The relief chairman took cognizance of "the belief expressed in some quarters" that part of the sales tax receipts were wrongfully diverted from relief to other uses. He called this contention "erroneous."

"The sales tax was passed in 1933 both to provide additional money for relief and to replace the state property tax which was the principal source of income for the state's general revenue fund," he said.

Jacoby asserted that public welfare purposes took 44 cents out of every dollar paid out by the state treasury during the year ended June 30 this year compared with 15.8 cents in 1929.

GRAND JURY IS TO BE CALLED; OTHERS NAMED

Typhoid Fever Death Toll Brings Probe Into Liability

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Luther B. Bratton said tonight he would call a special grand jury to convene Nov. 13 to investigate the deaths of 52 patients and employees in a typhoid fever epidemic at the Manteno state mental hospital.

He approved a petition presented by State's Attorney Samuel N. Shapiro, who has conducted an individual inquiry of the deaths.

Shapiro said he would ask the jury to consider indicting Dr. Ralph T. Hinton, suspended managing officer of the hospital; A. L. Bowen, state director of public welfare, and Lillian Williams, hospital dietitian, for malfeasance and misfeasance in office.

Dr. Hinton was suspended today by order of Governor Horner. B. A. Steinberg, assistant managing officer, was appointed acting head of the institution.

The governor, in a letter to Bowen, demanded that Dr. Hinton be suspended until such a time as competent authorities have placed responsibility for conditions at this hospital." Dr. Hinton had been in charge of the institution since it was opened in 1930.

Manslaughter

Shapiro said manslaughter charges would be brought against the responsible persons in the grand jury investigation disclosed justification for them.

He said his first purpose was to find out what was the direct cause of the epidemic and who was responsible for it. His second purpose, he said, was to establish means of preventing a future epidemic. His findings on the latter, he explained, would be presented in recommendations to the governor and the General Assembly.

Dr. Hinton has contended the epidemic was traced to contaminated drinking water obtained from wells. The hospital is receiving its supply now by truck from Kankakee.

The first typhoid death, Shapiro said records showed, was on July 15, but Bowen did not receive official notification of the epidemic until Aug. 19. Also, he said, it was not until Aug. 19 that chlorination of the water supply and immunization of the patients began.

As long ago as 1931, Shapiro said sanitary engineers had recommended chlorination of the wells to protect them against contamination.

Wire From Horner

At the outset of the investigation by Shapiro he received a telegram of encouragement from Governor Horner.

Today, after ordering the suspension of Dr. Hinton and such other employees as were believed necessary, the governor said the action was not to be construed as a reflection upon those suspended.

"The public is entitled to the fullest facts," he said, "and I feel that those making the investigation would feel freer in their action if someone else were in charge of the institution at this time."

Bowen said at Springfield that Steinberg would be in charge of the hospital only until Dr. Charles F. Reed, managing officer of the Elgin State hospital, could be recalled from a business trip in the west to take charge at Manteno.

THE PROCLAMATION

Horner Confirms Early Date For Illinois

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Governor Henry Horner today swept away all hope that Thanksgiving turkeys might have held for that extra week of life.

In a proclamation, he carried out his previously announced intention of following President Roosevelt's example in moving Thanksgiving Day up to November 23 this year—a week earlier than usual.

Though the date be changed, the sentiment was not, the governor's proclamation emphasized. It urged citizens to observe the day by "giving thanks to Almighty God for His bounty and by seeking divine guidance for the future."

Learning About Juries

The jury school held Thursday afternoon in the circuit court room under auspices of the Morgan County League of Women Voters developed many facts which will be of interest and help to women who are called for jury service. Not nearly every woman in the county may expect a summons to appear as a prospective juror in years to come, but the ones whose names are drawn for the various terms of court no doubt will feel more at ease, and their capabilities as jurors will be increased if they acquaint themselves with general requirements of a juror.

The talks by Judge Walter W. Wright and State's Attorney Oscar Zachary were informative. These officials gave the audience of women a clearer picture of what takes place in the grand jury room and court room. While some women may have been familiar with the operations of the machinery of justice, the majority of women, the group from which most of the future jurors will be drawn, are not well versed in court procedure for the reason that they have never been called upon to serve on juries.

The new women's juror law which became effective only a few months ago opens up a new responsibility to women of Morgan county. Housewives, stenographers, clerks, business women, professional women, will be called from time to time to take their place in the jury box. Whether they remain to pass judgment on a case depends, of course, on their qualifications in the particular case on trial.

More jury schools for women would be a contribution to the efficiency of the courts, our laws and justice. While the women are receiving a course in fundamentals of jury service, there are many men who could profit by the same information, as the jurors have often exhibited ignorance of what was expected of them.

An American Duty

As Armistice Day approaches, it is the duty of all Americans to renew their pledge of allegiance to their nation, and to devote thought not only to the blessings of American citizenship, but to the task of preserving those things which we hold dear, Armistice Day, when the anniversary of that joyous day back in 1918 is celebrated, should be each year a time for taking inventory of patriotism and progress along the path of peace.

Jacksonville will again observe Armistice Day with the American Legion and affiliated organizations taking the lead in plans, with an invitation to the public to participate in the ceremonies. It is the patriotic duty of the general public to cooperate wholeheartedly, by its attendance and interest, at the special services to-morrow afternoon at the high school auditorium, and the parade on the morning of November 11.

The high school auditorium should be filled to capacity Sunday afternoon when Honorable Edward A. Hayes, former state and national commander of the American Legion, delivers an address. Citizens should be eager to assemble for an impressive patriotic program which has been arranged, as in that way they can do honor to the memory of the nation's heroes, and promote the cause of Americanism.

The Annual Warning

Health officials have issued their annual warning against the dangers of tularemia, more commonly called rabbit fever, which each year sends several hundred Illinois citizens to sick beds, and in some instances results fatally. Despite the advice for caution in handling wild rabbits, the number of cases of the disease continues to grow during and after the winter hunting season. Several such cases of illness have been suffered by Morgan county citizens.

Not all rabbits carry the tularemia germ, but that is why the disease among humans is so prevalent. Hunters are willing to take chances because they believe that only a few rabbits are afflicted. Someone makes a mistake, skins and dresses a rabbit which has the fever, and before long another case of tularemia goes down in the medical books.

The health department advises sportsmen not to kill lazylike, sickly or indifferent acting rabbits, and to wear rubber gloves while dressing rabbits. This is sound advice which all hunters should try to follow for the sake of their own health.

Good Stuff, Poor Market

Opie Read, the famous humorist, who died this week at an advanced age, was a late survivor of a former era in American literature. His works were extremely popular in his earlier years, but he lingered behind the modern crop of swift typewriter pounders who outdistanced him, not in the quality of their writings, but in the streamlined methods of getting their stuff before the public.

Read admitted that he lacked something which would have made him several million dollars if he had been "smart." For instance, he sold the manuscript of one of his books for $700, from which the publishers realized hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The market was "down," too, at the time the author of "The Slow Train Through Arkansas" was turning out most of his funny tales. Writers didn't draw the fancy pay checks then that the better known authors do today. The movie rights didn't amount to a hang when Read piloted the slow train on its painful journey through the hills and hollows of Arkansas, because there weren't any movies then.

Opie Read didn't have press agents, nor were publicity stunts attempted on behalf of his stories. He didn't make a lot of money compared to writers of the present. But he became one of the country's most popular humorists and entertainers whose name ranks with Mark Twain, Bill Nye, George Fitch, James Whitcomb Riley and others fully capable of making their readers chuckle or cry.

Fear Seining Will Injure Game Fish In Meredosia Bay

Local Anglers Report Low Water Detrimental; To Remove Large Fish

Seining operations are being conducted in Meredosia bay to remove the larger fish for commercial use. It was learned Friday. Hook and line fishermen in Jacksonville, who told of the seining, said they feared the game fish in the bay would be killed or injured, on account of the extremely low water.

A mile of seine has been strung and will be pulled slowly down the bay. Several hundred thousand pounds of "rough" fish will be removed, but the game fish will be put back. The state makes a small charge for the privilege of seining.

The fish to be taken out consist mostly of carp, buffalo and the larger cat. Local fishermen expressed belief that the floundering of the larger fish in the nets would bruise the smaller game fish and knock off the scale which protects them from bacteria.

Court Sets Docket For November Term; To Draw New Jury

Outline Three Days of Work For Jury Starting Next Monday

Judge Walter W. Wright instructed Circuit Court Clerk Frank McCarthy to draw a new regular panel of jurors to serve during the November term of court which will open here next Monday. The judge Friday morning set the docket for the term, outlining work for at least three days for the jurors, and setting a number of cases which will be heard by the bench.

The jury which served recently during the trial of Harry E. Perry on murder charges was excused from further service at the conclusion of the trial. The court instructed the clerk to draw a new jury to hear a number of cases, many of them arising out of automobile accidents. There are no criminal cases set for trial at the November term.

After setting the docket for the term, the judge heard a number of attorneys on different cases, and entered a number of orders.

He granted a divorce to Bertha May DeLong from Clarence Allen DeLong on charges of desertion, and heard preliminary arguments in another divorce case.

The court entered a decree for distribution of the assets in the partition suit brought by Lou Decker against Gertrude E. Walter and others; disallowed an intervening petition brought by Mac T. Sappington in the suit of the Elliott State Bank vs. Walter Van Os and instructed the petitioner to pay the costs of the hearing; allowed the plaintiff, Louis D. Boston's motion to strike a paragraph from an answer to a complaint brought by the defendant, Ramon Burnett; and allowed the petition of Lois Mills, conservator for Frank Sommer Mills vs. the Maryland Casualty company to purchase real estate.

The master's report in the partition suit brought by Harry Edward Ferreira against George Mason was filed, and an amended complaint for foreclosure was filed by the Union Central Life Insurance company against John O. Hayes and others.

The court also set November 9th as the day to hear arguments regarding objections filed to the report of the master in chancery in the suit brought by the Oak Park Trust and Savings Bank against the Ayers Safety Deposit company.

Cases set for jury trial next week are: Monday: Mary A. Bubbs vs. Reddy Cab Co., complaint. Walter Townsend vs. Harry Herrin et al., complaint. Russell Bronson vs. William German, et al., complaint. Tuesday—R. M. Ferreira vs. George Webb, appeal from J. P.; Joseph Barnhart vs. John Hoecker, complaint; Clarence Quintal as administrator of the estate of Millicent Brackett, deceased, vs. Robert Williams, complaint. Wednesday—A. J. Hanev vs. Charles E. Congregational To Have Special Rites

Dr. Pankhurst to Speak On War Problem at Sunday Morning Service

Special plans are underway for featuring "Armistice" in the Congregational church Sunday morning at 10:45.

Dr. W. Harris Pankhurst, the pastor, will speak on "What's Wrong With the World" and show what is the real factor in the present crisis and why it is likely to get worse. All kinds of reasons have been given for the war and just as many solutions offered but the real reason has been missed and therefore the right solution overlooked.

Does not the cause as well as the cure of war lie with democracy? Every churchman as well as every patriotic American should wonder this question for on the answer depends the peace of the world.

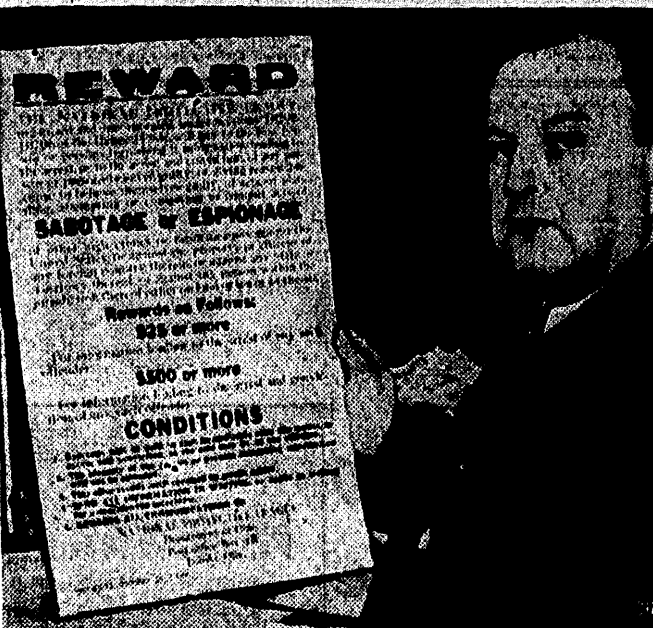

A twenty-voiced vested choir will render special music under the direction of Helen Brown Read.

The church will be suitably decorated to give emphasis to the occasion. A hearty invitation is extended to the public.

An Ohio organization's private espionage hunt, with bounty of $500 a head on spies, has drawn the wrath of J. Edgar Hoover, FBI head. Toledo Attorney Harry B. Kirtland, above, says he represents the "National Protective League," which is sponsoring the "search" for saboteurs.

Mrs. William T. Bruckner of Hinsdale, president, will open the general session which will be addressed by Mrs. John L. Whitehurst of Baltimore, Md., first vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, on "adjusting democracy to the human welfare."

The afternoon will be given over to conference meetings of the federation's various departments, and among the speakers will be Mrs. E. G. C. Williams of Danville, Judge B. H. Reck of Mendota, Mrs. Wilbur F. Fribley, president of the Chicago Housewives League, and Ruth B. Cowan of the Associated Press Bureau in Chicago. Representatives from the twentieth district attended the conference.

Attendant Admits He Murdered Nurse

Employee of Madison County House Confesses Act

Edwardsville, Ill., Nov. 3.—(P)—William Salinus, 47-year-old attendant at the Madison County Home, confessed to officials here today that he murdered Miss Elizabeth Jones, a nurse, because "she wouldn't listen" to his offer of marriage.

Chief of Police August Soehleke said Salinus signed a confession only a few hours after the body of Miss Jones was found last night in a shallow ravine near the home.

Deputy Coroner B. H. Weber found she had been strangled, Soehleke said. Salinus, who was lying near the body in a "dazed" condition, first told officers two men had attacked him and Miss Jones as they returned from a theater.

The attendant—held in the Madison county jail—changed his story, Soehleke said, when confronted with a small piece of rope taken from his pocket that matched a cord found around Miss Jones' neck.

Miss Jones, 44, had worked at the county home for six years. She formerly lived at Alton, Ill.

Norway Frees City of Flint

Uncertainty shrouded the status of the City of Flint until the Soviet government announced Oct. 26 that she had sailed from Murmansk under the American flag after an investigation of her cargo and completion of engine repairs.

The lack of information came from the Kremlin concerning the City of Flint brought from Washington a charge that Soviet officials "withheld adequate cooperation."

News Is Delayed It was not until the freighter was well at sea that it was learned that the German prize crew was taking her toward Germany in an effort to run the British blockade.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull instructed the American Embassies in Germany and Britain to ask that no action be taken endangering her American crew.

CENTENARIAN DIES

Williamsville, Ill., Nov. 3.—(P)—Jacob Yocom, whose 100th birthday last July 21 was the occasion for a civic celebration, died today. The centenarian suffered a stroke four days ago.

Born on a farm within a stone's throw of his present home, Yocom was a farmer in his young manhood and spent his entire lifetime in or near this Sangamon county village. In the Civil War he fought with Company B, 130th Illinois Infantry, and was that company's last survivor.

Roosevelt To Sign Measure At Noon Today

One additional line brought a loud laugh from those who had waited.

"May I add that I hope those members in the states where governors have set Nov. 30 as Thanksgiving Day will celebrate both Thanksgivings—on the 23rd and the 30th."

(The president referred to the controversy that has arisen from his effort to change the date of Thanksgiving from the last to next-to-last Thursday in November.)

The same message was sent to Vice President Garner and was read to the Senate.

Requirements

In addition to requiring that the belligerent governments in the European war zone, when buying here, pay cash and furnish ships to transport their purchases, the bill passed today places severe restrictions on American shipping. The vessels of this nation are forbidden to enter European belligerent ports, and to traverse "combat zones" as delineated by the president.

Three developments completed congressional work on the bill. First of all, the conference committee perfected the measure, changing language for purposes of clarification and adding a few minor amendments. After draftsman had put the measure in shape, it went at once to the Senate. Vice President Garner tried to jam it through at once, but his declaration that "without objection the conference report is agreed to," brought a half dozen indignant opposition senators to their feet, with shouts of "No, oh no."

Ruth Bryan Rohde To Give Series Of Talks at Monticello

Woman Well Known Here Will Take Group to Capital Next Spring

Alton.—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Rohde, author and speaker, former member of congress and a minister to Denmark, will return to her alma mater, Monticello college at Alton, Ill., the middle-west's oldest college for women, Nov. 5 to begin a series of special lectures in the field of political science and public affairs and serve as personal and vocational counselor to more than 200 girls.

George Irwin Rohrbough, president of the 102-year-old college, in announcing Mrs. Rohde as a faculty member said: "Mrs. Rohde, a noted alumna of Monticello, as a distinguished political and diplomatic figure, will lend a concreteness and reality to the study of the problems of democratic government. The major part of her time at Monticello will be spent in personal consultation with the young women on the campus, thus implementing our firm belief that the soundest education is by example."

Mrs. Rohde will also escort a group of students to Washington, D. C., next spring for a first-hand study of the problems of representative government. Her work at Monticello college, located about 30 miles from St. Louis, will not interfere with her engagements on the lecture stage or with her writing.

Daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, Mrs. Rohde served two terms in congress as representative from the Fourth Florida district. She was appointed minister to the Court of Denmark in 1933, the first woman in American history to occupy a high diplomatic post. Her mother, the Miss Mary Baird, was a student at Monticello college in 1878.

William Jennings Bryan, a struggling young lawyer with political ambitions, was a frequent visitor to the campus from nearby Jacksonville, and Miss Baird left school after a year to become his wife. Other members of Mrs. Rohde's family were students at Monticello since its foundation.

Explains Changes

So, Chairman Pittman (D-Nev.) of the foreign relations committee explained briefly the changes that had been made in the bill and sat down. Senator Johnson (R-Calif.) pointedly reminded him that he should have said that two of the Senate conferees, Johnson and Borah (R-Idaho), refused to sign the conference report. That was the whole of the Senate discussion, and it lasted barely ten minutes. The roll was called immediately and showed 55 to 24 in favor of passage.

HONOR FIRST MAN TO DIE IN FRANCE

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 3.—(P)—Veterans of Foreign Wars planned to lay a wreath here today on the grave of James Bethel Gresham, killed in France 22 years ago.

Gresham, an infantry private, was the first member of the American expeditionary forces to die in action in the World War.

German shock troops killed the 24-year-old Kentucky-born soldier in a night trench raid near Barthelmont Nov. 3, 1917.

He was buried in Lorraine, but his body was brought back here in 1921. Ten years ago his relatives resisted a campaign to move the corpse to the Indiana World War Memorial in Indianapolis.

Gresham, born in Henderson, Ky., enlisted in 1914 for the Mexican border campaign.

George Spencer, Peoria, transacted business here Thursday.

Temporary Structure Is Built Around It; Door Too Small

Bald Hopper, who is in charge of the office furniture department of Hopper & Hamn, located in the old Ward bindery building, got to thinking the other day he would need an office with a stove in it this winter. With beaverboard and crating he constructed said office, put up the stove and was fixed for the winter.

But he built the office around a desk which had been sold. When it came time to deliver the desk, the office door proved too small for the exit. Well, anyway Bald has a desk in his winter quarters.

I. C. Yearlings Win From Wesleyan With Aerial Attack 20-13

Confuse Rines With Well Balanced Running Attack To Get One Marker

Illinois College's freshmen gridgers got inspired Friday afternoon, and by brandishing a polished aerial attack they were able to make some of their ground plays work against a heavier Illinois Wesleyan freshman team to win a thrill packed 20 to 13 victory on the I. C. field.

The Rines showed their real power down the field, couple first downs in the first quarter when they drove and then cut a hole through which Alkire stepped 45 yards for a touchdown. Alkire also plunged for the extra point.

Wesleyan's yearlings pushed the Blueboys frosh back again, but a fumble stopped them, and the Blueboys got the ball into Wesleyan territory when the Rine safety man touched a punt, and an Illinois end recovered.

They kept the Rines back for the remainder of the opening quarter, and in the second quarter sprung a touchdown which surprised even themselves.

"Fuzzy" Schilling whose running was one of the features of the game pulled what looked like a loss of about ten yards into a touchdown when he grabbed a forward pass from Yates who tossed to him as a last resort after fading back about ten yards. Without interference Schilling reversed his field, and ran down the sidelines 45 yards for a touchdown. Men who had gone downfield for the pass rose suddenly to cut down the Wesleyan defense men, and Schilling scored almost without a man laying a hand on him. He also placekicked the point after touchdown.

Then the Blueboy yearlings began making their running plays work, and after they had forced Wesleyan to the middle of the field, they started what looked like a running play to the left. Yates suddenly faded back, and wheeled a long pass to Parker, who took the pass about ten yards from the goal line and ambled across. Schilling again placekicked the point.

The Blueboy yearlings came back for the second half to continue mixing up the Rine defense. Accurate tosses from Yates to Andre and Parker moved the ball downfield for big gains, while the backs, Evans, Schilling, Yates and White, kept pecking away at the Wesleyan line for shorter gains. Evans plowed the last eight yards for a touchdown, but Schilling's attempted placekick was blocked.

That touchdown fired the Wesleyan lads, and they ripped through the Blueboy defense for steady gains to reach pay dirt, Johnson going over from the six yard line. The attempted conversion failed when the pass from center went over the Wesleyan back's head.

Wesleyan lost two valuable players with sprained ankles. Harold Wimberly, former Roodhouse player, suffered one of them a few minutes after he entered the game, and Patterson, their best running back, another just before the game wound up.

OUTLAW TONY'S DOG
Orange, N. J., Nov. 3.—(AP)—Tony Galento's dog Blackie has been outlawed as too much for this town.

The board of health marked up three counts and out against Blackie after Tony's pet nipped 10-year-old Eugene Lee yesterday. The heavy-weight challenger, now in Florida, was ordered to remove the dog from Orange or have it destroyed.

Eugene, up to now a Galento rooster, picked up Tony's autographed picture last night and threw it into a wastebasket. "That Bum," was all he would say.

Official Complaint Brings Fast Action
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—(AP)—It seems that Percy "Buster" Darling, Springfield's commissioner of streets, really started something when he issued a complaint against Coxy Spiegel, owner of a tire repair shop.

Darling, who ran for office on a platform of "streets and alleys so clean that Lincoln would be proud of them" charged Spiegel with violating an ordinance by doing his repair work on the curb in front of his shop.

Vancell J. Cochran, an employee of Spiegel, said other business obstructed traffic and signed a complaint against Herbert S. Woods who owns two sidewalk popcorn stands. Cochran noted that gasoline pumps in front of Harry Renfro's garage stood on the sidewalk and signed a complaint against him too.

The sidewalk obstruction cases will be heard by Police Magistrate William D. Conway, Monday.

HAS KNEE AILMENT
Baltimore, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Whether or not Whitlow Wyatt, pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, must undergo an operation for the knee ailment he developed last season depended today on the verdict of Johns Hopkins Hospital surgeons.

Wyatt and Larry McPhail, general manager of the Dodgers, conferred with Dr. George E. Zennett yesterday and McPhail reported only that he "expected" an operation would be necessary.

Forecaster Picks Irish, Ohio State, Michigan To Win

Tennessee Vols, Navy, Texas And Princeton Also Doped To Be Victors

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—College football harvests another bumper crop tomorrow, with high-riding Tennessee meeting its second major test of the season in keyed-up Louisiana State, Southern California battling Oregon State in what may be the decisive game in the western Rose Bowl race, and three eastern games alone expected to draw over 200,000 customers.

From a competitive angle, the Baton Rouge and Portland games are the most important. L.S.U. and its Leo Bird-Ken Kavanaugh pass combination are ready to let go with everything against a Tennessee club anxious to win a post-season bowl bid despite a spotty schedule, and Oregon State, only unbeaten and untied team in the Pacific coast conference, should prove a major obstacle for a Southern California eleven that finally has eased into high gear after starting in low gear.

Notre Dame and Army, as is their annual custom, will furnish the top crowd, with some 75,000 expected to jam their way into Yankee Stadium for the 26th game in this colorful intersectional rivalry. Navy and Penn look to 70,000 fans for their clash at Philadelphia's Franklin Field, and the latest episode in the thrill-clogged Yale-Dartmouth series is expected to draw 60,000 into Yale bowl.

Established Favorites
The program in general is marked by the predominance of well-established favorites. Realizing that this usually presages a week end notable for its upsets, this observer swings down the line with the following forecasts (probable attendance in parentheses):

Oregon State-Southern California (30,000)—The Trojans have three fine quarterbacks who take turns at being third-stringers. The material is almost as strong at every position. Southern Cal.

Louisiana State-Tennessee (45,000)—They say the wraps will be taken off Tennessee for fair. The Vols have few spots to make major dents on the national picture, and this is one Tennessee picture.

Army-Notre Dame (75,000)—The Cadets always come up for this one, sometimes even more than for Navy. Despite that and several Irish injuries, we still like Notre Dame.

Ole Miss-Indiana (40,000)—Ohio State to come roaring back from that Cornell upset.

Arkansas-Texas A. and M. (12,000)—The Aggies.

Minnesota-Northwestern (40,000)—The Gophers have had an extra week's rest, and the Wildcats appear to have found themselves. That makes it look close, with the edge to Minnesota.

Picks Michigan
Illinois-Michigan (30,000)—The Illini trying to defend their Orange reputation against the new "Galloping Ghost," Tom Harmon. He may look like one if the Wolverines shake him loose, Michigan.

Penn-Navy (70,000)—Navy.

Yale-Dartmouth (60,000)—Yale.

Texas-Southern Methodist (23,000)—Texas.

Princeton-Harvard (40,000)—Princeton.

U. C. L. A.-California (40,000)—U. C. L. A.

Alabama-Kentucky (16,000)—Bama.

Fordham-Rice (25,000)—Fordham.

Missouri-Nebraska (15,000)—Nebraska.

Georgia Tech-Duke (30,000)—Duke in a close one.

Baylor-Texas Christian (15,000)—Looks like Baylor.

Mississippi-Vanderbilt (15,000)—Ditto Ole Miss.

Oklahoma-Iowa State (25,000)—not too tough for Oklahoma.

Cornell-Columbia (15,000)—Cornell.

Purdue-Uva (22,000)—Stringing with Kinick and Iowa.

Stanford-Santa Clara (35,000)—Santa Clara.

Temple-Pitt (22,000)—The Panthers, not too handily.

East-New York U. over Lafayette, Holy Cross over Providence, Syracuse to shade Michigan State, unbeaten Duquesne over Marquette, unbeaten Georgetown over West Virginia, unbeaten Catholic U. over Tulsa, Wake Forest over Marshall, Penn State over Maryland, Manhattan over Boston U., Bucknell over Western Maryland.

Mid-west—Villanova over Detroit, Washington and Lee over Washington U. (St. Louis).

South—North Carolina handily over N. C. State, Florida over South Carolina, Furman over Virginia Tech, Richmond over Virginia Military, Virginia over Chicago, Davidson over the Citadel, Mississippi State over Birmingham-Southern.

Far west—Oregon over Washington State, Washington over Montana, Utah over Colorado.

RIDGELY ENCAMPMENT HAS CATFISH SUPPER
A catfish supper was served Friday evening at Odd Fellows Hall on West State street to members of Ridgely Encampment No. 9. The committee serving the supper consisted of Patricia John W. Marshall, H. L. Hutchins and Charles H. Goody.

After the supper the regular meeting of the Encampment was held. E. E. Henderson, a member of the finance committee of the Grand Encampment made an interesting report of the proceedings of the Grand Encampment.

The next meeting of the Encampment will be held on Nov. 17.

That defeat checked off their hopes of capturing the Central Conference crown and ruined one of their three fondest hopes. The other two are defeating Jacksonville high for the city title on Armistice day, and—the game today.

Rescue Small Dog

Workmen engaged in clearing the debris caused by the fire this week at the Allen Inman store on State street rescued a yellow dog about 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning from the wreckage where he has been since Monday morning.

The animal had a "running fit" during the fire Monday morning, apparently crazed by the sight of the fire, and finally ran into the burning building. He fell into a four foot depth of water which filled a hole cut out by the firemen in locating the blaze and was thought to have died.

Persons viewing the ruins reported hearing the animal's cries but he could not be located. The work of hauling away the wreckage at the Inman place began Wednesday morning and by Thursday had reached the point where the dog could be rescued.

The "hound, a bit woozy, but apparently uninjured, ran off down the street when placed on the sidewalk following his rescue.

Plan New Building

Tentative plans calling for the erection of a modern two story building on the site occupied by the two story building destroyed by fire here Monday, have been announced by Allen Inman, proprietor of the Inman store.

H. J. Gubser of the Gubser Furniture company also reports that their building will be remodeled and a complete new line of stock purchased. The Gubser Furniture store is closed.

WHEAT UP TWO CENTS AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A strong rally in the wheat market today lifted prices almost two cents a bushel from early lows to the best levels in a month and a half.

Buying of wheat was stimulated by strength in securities and by a six cents a bushel upturn in the price of soy beans to above $1 for the first time since March, 1938.

Continued drought in the hard winter wheat belt southwest also encouraged buying.

Receipts were wheat 6, corn 244, oats 19, soy beans 62.

After touching highs of 88 and 97 1/2 for December and May contracts respectively, wheat reacted slightly but closed 1-1/2 cents higher than yesterday, December 87 1/2-3, May 86 1/2-3. Corn was 1-1/2 up, December 50 1/2-51, May 53 1/2-3, and oats 1-1/2 higher.

New York Stock Market

New York, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Stocks tumbled fractionally to 2 points under an early profit taking assault in today's market, then turned around and posted net gains of as much before the close.

Aircraft, among the first to suffer, led the comeback in the late afternoon. Steels then stepped into front place and other shaky issues of the forenoon joined the upward reversal.

Liquidation on the theory the "good news" was out, quickly slammed favorites for losses and it was only in the afternoon that they shifted gears and got back on the climb.

Belated buying was said to have followed reports $159,000,000 in foreign plane orders were virtually in the hands of manufacturers, awaiting only the president's signing of the new neutrality law. A bolstering influence also was announcement the House-Senate conference committee had approved the administration's measure and that it was expected to go to the White House late this evening or tomorrow.

Transfers for the full proceedings approximated 1,800,000 shares.

Corporate bonds improved with stocks, but U. S. governments and foreign loans dipped. Commodities generally advanced. Wheat at Chicago was up 1 to 1 1/2 cents a bushel and corn gained 2 to 1 1/2.

J. T. Adkins to Show
Herd at Big Exhibit

Will Take "Blossom," Last Year's Grand Champion Of Breed to Show

Chicago.—John Thomas Adkins, well known Morgan county cattle breeder, will exhibit a herd of purebred Milking Shorthorn cattle at the 1939 International Live Stock Exposition which he is fitting for the show on his farm near Prentice.

His entries include the cow "Blossom," on which he was awarded the grand championship of this herd at the International show last year.

The exhibition will be held this year Dec. 2 to 9 at the Chicago Stock Yards. A record entry in all divisions is predicted by the exhibition management by the time a final tally of the exhibits is made later in the month. The advance entry is the heaviest in the history of the show, with exhibits listed to date by stockmen from 32 states and Canada.

Cash prizes exceeding $100,000 will be paid to exhibitors this year in contests featuring 30 breeds of live stock. The total entry is expected to be well over 12,000 animals.

One of the big features of the exposition is the International Grain and Hay show, which will be held for the twenty-first time this year. According to officials of this event, which includes competition for corn, small grain, seeds, and hay, entries will be accepted until Nov. 20 and are made free of charge to the grower.

Organize for Red Cross Roll Call In Business District

Members of the Legion Auxiliary have charge of the Red Cross roll call solicitation in the local business district. Albert W. Hall, general chairman of the campaign, called a meeting of this group Thursday. Mrs. Harry L. Hutches is chairman of the group.

At the meeting instructions were given and workers' kits were distributed.

Twenty members of the Auxiliary will take part in the solicitation, which will be conducted Tuesday morning, Nov. 14. Each will wear a roll call worker's badge. The group making the campaign in the business section includes:

Mrs. Harry L. Hutches, chairman, Mrs. Glen S. Spauld, Mrs. Wm. F. Doolin, Mrs. F. Archibald Causey, Mrs. George Vasconcelos, Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mrs. Ira Allen, Mrs. Guy R. Overton, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. Kenneth Wood, Mrs. R. W. Bland, Mrs. Boon Hall, Mrs. E. M. Murphy, Mrs. Thomas Craver, Mrs. Rex Klump, Mrs. D. C. Livengood, Miss Agnes Shields, Mrs. Luther Miller, Mrs. A. W. Ward.

In his appeal for greater membership support, National Commander Raymond J. Kelly stated: "The ties which knit the American Legion and the American Red Cross were forged on the battlefield in 1917-18, and have been strengthened in the ensuing years through cooperation in community service, disaster relief and aid to our sick and disabled comrades. Therefore, it is my privilege to recommend to the attention of our more than a million Legionnaires the need to keep the Red Cross prepared for action at home, and for humane and sympathetic relief to the distressed civilian populations in war torn Europe, in this trying year. The American Red Cross, under its chartered obligations, was created for impartial and neutral assistance to meet human distress. Legion Posts can take part in this work of mercy, and assist with the Red Cross program of relief, by participating in the annual Roll Call. I ask all individual Legionnaires to join through their Red Cross Chapter, November 11-30."

There is also a need of old furniture, which can be repaired and given to those who are without the necessities in their homes. The army can also use baby carriages which are no longer needed by their owners. Any donations the kindly people of Jacksonville have to offer will be gratefully accepted and put into shape for use of those who need it. A phone call to the Salvation Army will bring someone to collect the gifts of clothing or furniture.

77 PERCENT ILLINOIS
FARMERS SIGN UP IN
1940 WHEAT PROGRAM

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 3.—More Illinois wheat farmers than in any previous AAA farm program have signified their intention of participating in the 1940 wheat program.

That's the announcement of Lee Gentry, state AAA chairman, with 84,783, or 81 per cent, of the nearly 105,000 wheat farms in the state, signed up to participate in the coming wheat program year. Last year, 62,000, or 54 per cent, took part.

"Farmers in Illinois realize that the 1940 wheat acreage allotment of 62,000 acres is larger than the acreage planted during the World War and also 7 million acres larger than the 1939 allotment," Gentry said in explaining greater participation in the 1940 program. Then too, farmers know that wheat prices did not rise much the first two years of the last war and that world wheat supplies at the outbreak of the present war are the largest in history."

WAR STORIES IN STAMPS

Argentino Would Oust British From Falklands

BRITISH defense of the Falkland Islands, 200 miles off the Patagonian coast of Argentina, has aroused protests in the South American republic and renewed demands that the islands be returned to Argentina.

Apparently fearing that Germany would repeat a World War attempt to gain the islands as a South Atlantic naval base, Britain has recruited a Falklands' defense force in Uruguay and Argentina, has sent troops to Port Stanley, chief seaport of the islands.

Argentina contends this action violates her neutrality and flatly disregards the 300-mile zone of neutrality around the American continent. The Falklands lie well within this zone.

The Falklands were first settled by the French in 1764, later sold to Spain. Argentina inherited them by revolution but, being occupied with internal affairs, paid small attention to the islands. In 1831 an American sloop dislodged pirates who had used the islands as a base, and in 1833 United States turned the Falklands over to Britain.

During the World War, Admiral von Spee attempted to seize the Falklands for Germany, but the British destroyed his fleet.

The artist has indicated the position of the Falklands with small cross on the Argentine stamp, above, showing a map of the republic. The original stamp does not show the islands.

SERIAL STORY

JOAN OF ARKANSAS

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD
COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Rocco, one of the three strangers who are interested in Joan, trails her to the campus "Varsity" shop. He lates there, waiting for Joan and Marianne to leave. He meets Tommy Peters, who recalls seeing Rocco's picture, but Tommy can't remember the connection.

CHAPTER XXI

ROCCO hailed a cab and went downtown. At 11:30 Sam and Big Ed drew up to the intersection of two back streets and picked him up.

"Well?" Ed said.

"Ed, I'm tellin' you I know so much about that dame I even know what she's gonna have for lunch tomorrow." Rocco grinned in the darkness.

"Yeah . . . sure." Big Ed told him. "You're simply amazin', but I'll pin the medals on you later. Give out with the dope."

Rocco spoke quickly. "Tomorrow she goes on some trip with her sociology class out to an orphanage . . . she uses this Rhodes kid's car . . . she gets back at 3 and takes the car to the stadium so's he don't have to walk back from football practice . . . when she drives down to the stadium, that's when we work."

"Yeah, and what if she decides to keep the car all afternoon and take it back at 5, or maybe later."

"Nine chances outa ten she won't. I know, I'm tellin' you."

"How'd you pick all this stuff up since 4 o'clock?"

Rocco laughed mirthlessly. "Tell me, Ed . . . you know anyone as smart as your boy Rocco? I got methods."

Big Ed bit off the end of a cigar and lit it. "Sam, you get up early and give this bus a good going over, hey?"

Sam stared straight ahead. "She ain't never run better."

"Mebbe not, but you'll do what I say, hey Sam?"

"Sure, Ed . . . Sure."

IT was a beautiful fall day, and Joan, walking over to pick up Keith's car, wished it were two miles instead of two blocks to the Gamma house.

She picked up the keys from the cook and drove over to one of the dorms to call for three girls in her class who were to make the trip with her.

They joined the rest of the group at the orphanage and spent the next three hours making observations and taking notes on the institution's system of operation.

They ate a late lunch at a downtown tea shop and then returned to the university district.

Joan took the other girls back to the dormitory and stopped in at the Varsity for a minute.

"Hi, Uncle Jim," she greeted. "How about some stamps?"

He pulled out his postal box. "Say, Joan, there was a fella in here a few minutes ago lookin' for a football ticket. He wanted to know if you usually stopped in during the afternoon. He was in last night just about the time you were, and asked me who you were when you went out."

Joan frowned. "That's funny. He wasn't a student, was he?"

"Nope. And I noticed he got into a big sedan across the street with a couple other fellows."

"Thanks, Uncle Jim . . . couldn't have been very important or he'd have called me at the house."

She returned to her room and wrote a couple of letters before taking Keith's car back to the stadium.

"I'll be back in 45 minutes or so," she told Elaine. "If I get any phone calls insist on a message, will you?"

SHE dropped her letters in a corner box and drove across campus. Stopping at the library to pick up a book she bumped into Dan Webber.

"Hi, there," she said. "Going down to the stadium soon? I'll take you down."

"What do you mean—you'll take me down?"

She explained she was returning Keith's car. "Can you imagine that lazy so-and-so making me walk all the way back from the stadium when I could have left it at the fraternity house?"

Dan grinned. "Sure I can. That's Keith. But maybe I shouldn't blame him at that. The way Sloucum has been running us ragged this week that car comes in handy when it's time to go home."

They walked out into the bright sunlight. "Think I'll turn down your offer," he said. "The walk'll do me good. Anyhow, Sloucum screams when he spots any of the boys getting chauffeur service. He claims the modern athlete is going soft because of the automobile and stuff."

"And you believe him, of course."

"Absolutely," he said solemnly. "Well, if you don't want to ride with me . . . I'm very good company, you know."

He grinned again. "Okay . . . let's get going before we start squaring off."

"Who's squaring off?" she flared, but he covered his ears and pretended not to listen.

Once in the car he relaxed deep in the leather seat and sighed. "Just think—three more days and life'll be worth living again. No more practice . . . no more charity-horses . . . no more Sloucum bellowing in our ears."

"What about the Rose Bowl?" He was silent for a long moment. "We'll talk about that after Saturday's game—maybe."

"You think we'll win, don't you?"

"I think so."

She noticed his quiet confidence.

THEY skirted the university power plant and swung onto the long gravel road which led down to the stadium. At the same instant a heavy blue sedan moved out of the stadium parking lot and started slowly toward them.

Joan didn't notice the other car until she rounded a curve. The sedan came toward them slowly, smack in the middle of the narrow road.

"It's about time for that guy to move over," Dan muttered as they drew closer.

Forty yards away and the sedan showed no inclination of drawing over to its own side of the road. And then Joan noticed there were three men in the other car.

A sudden thought made her swing wide in an attempt to move around them, off the road, but around them, nevertheless.

But they swung wide with her and when she jammed on the brake the cars were only three feet apart. She was completely blocked.

"Hey!" Dan shouted. "What's going on . . ."

But even as the two cars screeched to a stop, Rocco was scrambling out of the sedan. There was an automatic in his hand. Joan gasped and clutched Dan's arm.

Council Envisions Recreational Area Bordering New Lake

Requests to Lease Land For Homes and Cabins Have Already Been Made

Envisioning a large resort area on the shores of the city's new lake, Alderman Ralph Cowgour and Mayor H. H. Vasconcellos urged members of the city council at a special meeting held last night in the council chamber to bring together all of the ideas they were able to obtain on how best to utilize the land purchased for the new lake on the Big Sandy creek.

Discussion of the proposed lake recreational center was brought up by the water committee chairman, Alderman Cowgour, who said that he had received a number of requests from interested persons who said they wanted to lease land along the lake for home and cabin sites. He said that as yet no arrangement has been worked out whereby these leases may be issued, and asked that members of the council consider various plans.

The special meeting of the council was called to open bids for material to be used on the proposed Morton avenue widening project. The bids from a dozen firms were opened, tabulated, and referred to City Engineer Kenneth Stapleton for evaluation and report back to the council, probably at the meeting to be held Monday night.

Members of the council also approved a proposed landscaping project to be carried out at the municipal light plant generating station by approving a request for $203.90 to purchase shrubbery. City Engineer Stapleton told the council that when the completed landscaping project was planned, the cost ran up to about $1,000, but that since that time the city has received a promise from the city of Springfield of the gift of several fir trees, which amounted to about $300, and that other portions of the project have been cut to bring about the present plan.

Taking up the bids to furnish material for the East Morton avenue widening project, the engineer said that the state already has purchased its share of the materials which will go into the work, and that the state is contemplating doing something to the highway from the city limits eastward beyond Maitaville creek. One of the state highway department engineers has suggested putting a bridge across the Chicago and Alton tracks at the subway, he said, while other state engineers have discussed widening and raising the pavement through the creek bottom.

Bids to furnish the gravel, steel, pavement fabric and some storm sewer were received from the Lincoln Sand and Gravel Co., Moline Concrete company, Chicago; Dow Chemical company of Midland, Mich.; Columbia Quarry company of St. Louis; Universal Highway Products company of Chicago; Olney J. Dean Steel company, Chicago; American Steel and Wire company, Chicago; Thornton Quarries Corporation, Chicago; Leonard and Six, Jacksonville; Chicago Gravel Co., Springfield and Peter Vredenburg Lumber Co., Springfield.

Claim Of $125,000 Against City Ends In Judgment of $33,000

Revealing that a judgment has been entered against the City of Jacksonville in Federal court at Springfield for between $32,000 and $33,000 in favor of the Bankers Life Insurance company which brought suit against the city for approximately $125,000 six years ago, City Attorney Edward Cleary last night told members of the city council that it would be possible to meet the judgment with a bond issue for the amount which would entail no increase in the municipal tax rate.

The city attorney reviewed the case which has been pending for six years in the federal court, and which was a result of the closing of the Ayers National bank late in 1932, and pointed out that the city had saved approximately $85,000 by taking the case through the federal court, the circuit court of appeals, and then again through the federal court.

Atorney Cleary recalled that in 1925 attorneys for the Bankers Life Insurance company came to Jacksonville, examined the accounts of the treasurer, and at that time it was discovered that there was about a $60,000 shortage of funds collected for the retirement of the South Side Sewer improvement bonds. These funds were embezzled, he said.

Asked for Judgment
At that time the Bankers Life company wanted the city to consent to permit the federal court in Springfield to enter a decree for a judgment of $125,000 against the city. The Bankers' Life company owned about two-thirds of the south side sewer bonds. The city refused to grant this request, and as a result a suit was filed in the federal court. In 1936 the federal court judge returned a verdict allowing the Bankers' Life company a judgment of $85,000, which the city immediately appealed to the circuit court of appeals in Chicago.

The appeal court reversed the decision of the trial court on the grounds that the Bankers' Life company had brought suit against the city on bonds which were not at that time due.

In the meantime, the supreme court of Illinois decided that a city was liable for the loss of funds due to defalcations of a city official, in a suit brought against the city of Bradley, Illinois, where a similar situation was discovered. At no time, the city attorney said, has the Jacksonville administration been held liable for the acts of its officials. The case has been pending during three city administrations.

Abandons Claims
Also, he said, conditions got better and the city began to recover from the failure of the bank. Finally the Bankers' Life attorneys agreed to abandon certain of their claims against the city, including an item of $25,000 which they alleged the city had no right to spend for right-of-way for sewers, $15,000 for interest on some of the bonds, and additional miscellaneous items, reducing the total of their claim to about $60,000, the actual amount embezzled.

At the time the embezzlement was discovered, he recounted, the city was able to recover about $25,000, leaving a difference of between $32,000 and $33,000 to be accounted for. Of the amount of money to be made up and placed in the account, he said, about $15,000 is for bonds now due, and the remainder is for bonds which will fall due in the future, but which had been paid to the treasurer's office by the property owners.

A bond issue, he said, probably could be issued calling for three percent interest. He said it would be possible to pay off the issue in the next three years, without an increase in the municipal tax rate, by arranging the maturities of the bonds.

He pointed out that nearly all of the general obligation bonds would be retired by next year, and that it would be possible to have the new bonds take the place of the bonds which are now being paid off. He said that it would be possible to retire about $3,000 in bonds this year, and about $15,000 in each of the next two years. He also said that the judgment of the federal court provides for five percent interest until the judgment is met, and that the city can obtain the money to meet the judgment for about three percent.

He said he had had a conference recently with a municipal bond salesman, who made an offer to purchase an issue of three percent bonds at par. The south side sewer bonds were not general obligations of the city, but were against the properties involved in the improvement. However, the fact that funds embezzled were provided for property owners to pay for the improvement, made the amount of the indebtedness a general obligation of the city under the decision of the supreme court in the city of Bradley case.
